Attorney Caroline Scalf is an associate in the Atlanta office of CSVL as a member of the Healthcare Litigation and General Liability and Employment Litigation practice groups. Prior to joining us, Caroline worked as a Staff Attorney under Judge Verda M. Colvin at the Bibb County Superior Court and then followed, now Justice Colvin, to the Georgia Court of Appeals. Her employ at these Courts afforded her a unique perspective in her current defense practice, as well as offered her invaluable research, drafting, and court procedural experience.

Caroline earned her undergraduate degree in Political Science and French from the University of Georgia and her J.D., cum laude, from Mercer University School of Law. While in law school, Caroline received CALI Awards for Georgia Civil Practice and Procedure and Introduction to Legal Research. She also earned a certificate in Advanced Legal Writing, Research, and Drafting. In her spare time, Caroline enjoys baking and decorating cakes and cookies, exploring dog-friendly Atlanta locations with her dog, Ollie, and cheering on the Georgia Bulldogs during football season.
