Kelli Goldstein is an associate and the Summer Clerkship Coordinator in the Charleston offices of Copeland, Stair, Valz & Lovell. Kelli practices a wide variety of General Liability, Commercial Litigation, and Health Care Litigation. Her general liability practice is comprised of automobile liability, premises liability, and products liability matters. Kelli also defends physicians, physician practice groups, medical facilities, and other medical service providers in health care related claims.

Prior to CSVL, Kelli worked for a busy boutique firm also in the Charleston area, where she focused on general business litigation and property dispute litigation. Kelli earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from the Charleston School of Law and her B.S. from Clemson University. During Law School, Kelli was a Presidential Honors Student and received Cali Awards in Legal Research and Writing and Drafting Preliminary Agreements.

In her spare time, Kelli enjoys spending time with her family, going on adventures with her two dogs Albie and Judge, and discovering all Charleston has to offer.
