Canon Tyler Corbitt is an associate attorney practicing insurance coverage and bad faith litigation and general liability litigation. While obtaining his J.D. from Emory University School of Law, Canon earned the Legal Writing and Research Book Award and was inducted into the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society. Since graduating cum laude in 2019, Canon has been an active member of various professional organizations including the American Bar Association, the State Bar of Georgia, and the Atlanta Bar Association. Within these organizations, he has chaired committees and sections, such as the Labor and Employment Law Committee under the Young Lawyers Division of the State Bar of Georgia.

Canon's legal accomplishments include successfully defending a large brewing company in a significant personal injury case before the U.S. Supreme Court and securing dismissals in various high-stakes litigation matters. His notable achievements extend to ERISA class action lawsuits and FLSA collective actions. Beyond his legal career, Canon is an avid enthusiast of racquetball, snowboarding and skiing, and chess.
